Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear Attorney General Foster:

We represent Pure Integration, LLC (pureIntegration), 13454 Sunrise Valley Dr, Herndon, VA 20171, and are writing to notify your office of an incident that affects the security of personal information relating to one (1) New Hampshire resident. By providing this notice, pureIntegration does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of New Hampshire law or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On April 14, 2016, pureIntegration was the targeted victim of an e-mail phishing attack. The incident involved an email from a 3rd party, impersonating pureIntegration's CEO and requesting a file of the 2015 W-2s. An IRS Tax Form W-2 includes the following categories of information: (1) the employee's name; (2) the employee's address; (3) the employee's Social Security number; and, (4) the employee's wage information. This information was provided before pureIntegration discovered that the request was made by an imposter. pureIntegration discovered the fraudulent nature of the request on April 20, 2016 and immediately began an investigation to determine the nature and scope of this incident.

Notice to New Hampshire Resident

On April 22, 2016, pureIntegration notified individuals who may have been affected by this incident via email, and provided details of the incident, information on steps individuals can take to protect against identity theft and fraud, and contact information individuals may use should they have questions or concerns. A copy of that email notice is attached hereto as Exhibit A. On April 26, 2016, pureIntegration emailed affected individuals to provide complimentary access to credit and identity monitoring services, including identity monitoring services, through LifeLock. A copy of that email is attached hereto as Exhibit B. In addition to the email notices, on April 22 and 26, 2016, pureIntegration will begin mailing notice letters to potentially affected individuals on April 29, 2016, which includes one (1) New Hampshire resident. The notice letter will be provided in substantially the same form as the letters attached here as Exhibit C.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering this incident, pureIntegration moved quickly to identify those that may be affected, to put in place resources to assist them, and to provide them with notice of this incident.

Additionally, pureIntegration is providing potentially affected individuals with information on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies and the IRS, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, state attorney general, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. pureIntegration notified the FBI, IRS, and other state regulators. pureIntegration is also reviewing its policies and procedures relating to data privacy and is taking steps to further educate its staff on data privacy related issues, including email phishing and spoofing attacks.

Contact Information

Should you have any questions regarding this notification or other aspects of the data security event, please contact us at 215-977-4059.

Very truly yours,

EXHIBIT A

This message is going out to all individuals who were employees of pureIntegration in 2015.

We are contacting you because we have learned of a data security incident that occurred on April 14, 2016 that involved some of your personally identifiable information.

The incident involved an email from a 3rd party, impersonating our CEO and requesting a file of the 2015 W-2s. In response to that request all W-2s from 2015 were provided on April 14th. Subsequently, we determined that this email was a 3rd party phishing email. As you know, the W-2s include personally identifiable information such as name, social security number, address, and wages.

We are notifying you so you can take action along with our efforts to minimize or eliminate potential harm. Because this incident involves personally identifiable information, we strongly encourage you to take preventive measures now to help prevent and detect any misuse of your information.

To protect you, we are in the process of retaining a company that specializes in identity theft protection in order to provide you with credit and identity monitoring services, paid by pureIntegration. The vendor, and the steps for you to take advantage of these services, will be made available to you in the next few days. We have also notified the IRS and spoken with investigators in their fraud division.

As a first preventive step, we recommend you closely monitor your financial accounts and, if you see any unauthorized activity, promptly contact your financial institution. We also recommend that you inform any 3rd party that assists you with your tax preparation where applicable.

As a second step, you also may want to contact the three U.S. credit reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian and TransUnion) to obtain a free credit report from each by calling 1-877-322-8228 or by logging onto www.annualcreditreport.com.

Finally, if you have not done so already, we recommend that you file your tax return as soon as possible. You should also file an IRS Form 10439, which can be downloaded here https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f14039.pdf.

We are very sorry that we fell victim to this phishing attack. We have already implemented technical and procedural changes to better defend against phishing attacks like this in the future.

In the interest of timely communication, we wanted to provide this communication immediately. We will be emailing you again and sending a letter to your home with details regarding how you can enroll to receive credit and identity monitoring services.

If you have any questions at any time during this process, please email or call me or Soledad.

Sincerely,

Greg Stayin

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and financial loss by reviewing your account statements, and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law, everyone is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order a free credit report, visit http://www.annualcreditreport.com/ or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Individuals may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of their credit report:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
P.O. Box 105069	P.O. Box 2002	P.O. Box 2000

800-525-6285	888-397-3742	800-680-7289
www.equifax.com	www.experian.com	www.transunion.com

At no charge, you can also have these credit bureaus place a "fraud alert" on your credit file. A "fraud alert" will tell creditors to take additional steps to verify your identity prior to granting credit in your name; however, because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, it may also delay your ability to obtain credit while the credit bureaus verify your identity. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your files. You may use the contact information listed above to contact the major credit bureaus and place a "fraud alert" on your credit report.

You can also place a "security freeze" on your credit file that prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from your credit report without your written authorization but may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests for new credit. If you have been a victim of identity theft, and provide the credit reporting agency with a valid police report, the credit reporting agency cannot charge to place, lift or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit agency may charge you a fee to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze. If you incur a cost to place a security freeze, please let us know. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies separately to place a security freeze on your credit file:

You can also contact the IRS at www.irs.gov/Individuals/Identity-Protection or https://www.irs.gov/uac/Taxpayer-Guide-to-Identity-Theft for helpful information and guidance on steps you can take to prevent a fraudulent tax return from being filed in your name and what to do if you become the victim of such fraud.

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting your state Attorney General or the Federal Trade Commission. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.ftc.gov/idtheft; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and financial loss by reviewing your account statements, and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law, everyone is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order a free credit report, visit http://www.annualcreditreport.com/ or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Individuals may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of their credit report:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
P.O. Box 105069	P.O. Box 2002	P.O. Box 2000
Atlanta, GA 30348	Allen, TX 75013	Chester, PA 19022
800-525-6285	888-397-3742	800-680-7289
www.equifax.com	www.experian.com	www.transunion.com

At no charge, you can also have these credit bureaus place a "fraud alert" on your credit file. A "fraud alert" will tell creditors to take additional steps to verify your identity prior to granting credit in your name; however, because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, it may also delay your ability to obtain credit while the credit bureaus verify your identity. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your files. You may use the contact information listed above to contact the major credit bureaus and place a "fraud alert" on your credit report.

You can also place a "security freeze" on your credit file that prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from your credit report without your written authorization but may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests for new credit. If you have been a victim of identity theft, and provide the credit reporting agency with a valid police report, the credit reporting agency cannot charge to place, lift or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit agency may charge you a fee to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze. If you incur a cost to place a security freeze, please let us know. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies separately to place a security freeze on your credit file:
