FORECLOSURE INTERVENTION AND COUNSELING PROGRAM GRANTS REVIEW COMMITTEE

New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority has contracted with the State of New Hampshire, through the Department of Justice and the Banking Department, to coordinate the administration of a robust foreclosure intervention initiative. The contract created a “Grants Committee” that consists of New Hampshire Housing, Department of Justice and the Banking Department.

New Hampshire Housing released two separate requests for proposals:

1. To provide foreclosure counseling services to at-risk homeowners within the state; and
2. To provide a statewide, toll-free intake and referral hotline to direct at-risk homeowners to professional foreclosure counseling services within the state.

The Grants Committee will be reviewing the applications for grants during their meeting on Friday, December 5, 2014, at 2:30 p.m. at the State of New Hampshire Banking Department’s Offices located at 53 Regional Drive, Suite 200, Concord, NH.
