Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear Mr. Foster:

We represent Acosta, Inc. and its subsidiaries, including Mosaic Sales Solutions US Operating Co. LLC (collectively, the "Company"). The Company's corporate office is located at 6600 Corporate Center Parkway, Jacksonville, Florida 32216. We are writing to notify you of a data security event that may have compromised the security of personal information of eight hundred and eighty-seven (887) New Hampshire residents. The Company's investigation into this event is ongoing, and this notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to this submission. By providing this notice, the Company does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of New Hampshire law.

Nature of the Data Security Incident

On November 10, 2014, the personal automobile of an associate in the Company's Human Resources department was burglarized. Stolen from the automobile were various personal items and a Company laptop. The associate discovered the theft on November 11, 2014 and promptly reported the theft to the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and to the Company. The Company has not been notified that the laptop has been recovered by the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office.

The Company immediately initiated an investigation to determine what sensitive information may have been contained on the laptop at the time of theft. The Company confirmed that the laptop was password protected at the time of the theft, but it was not encrypted. The Company terminated remote login capabilities for the stolen laptop to prevent unauthorized access to the Company's network. Although our investigation is ongoing, the Company determined that some personal information for certain current and former Company employees and their beneficiaries were contained on the laptop at the time of the theft. The personal information on the laptop includes names, plus one or more of the following data elements: addresses, dates of birth, bank account information, Social Security numbers, employee identification numbers, phone numbers and email addresses.

Notice to New Hampshire Residents

While the investigation is ongoing, the Company has determined that personal information of eight hundred and eighty-seven (887) New Hampshire residents were contained in certain of files on the laptop at the time of the theft. Notice will be mailed to these eight hundred and eighty-seven (887) New Hampshire residents on December 12, 2014, in substantially the same form as the letter attached as Exhibit "A."

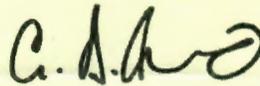

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

The Company takes this matter, and the security of the personal information in its care, seriously and has taken measures to minimize the risk of similar future data incident. These measures include a review of the Company's policies and procedures relating to the security and confidentiality of Company records containing personal information. In addition to providing written notice of this incident to affected individuals, these individuals will be offered access to one (1) free year of identity protection services and identity restoration services. The Company is also providing these individuals with information on how to protect against identity theft and fraud. The Company is providing written notice of this incident to other regulators in the United States and Canada and to the national consumer reporting agencies in the United States.

Contact Information

Should you have any questions regarding this notification or other aspects of the data security incident, please contact us at [REDACTED]

Very truly yours,

Dear Sample A Sample:

Acosta, Inc. and its subsidiaries, including Mosaic Sales Solutions US Operating Co. LLC (collectively, the "Company"), are writing to inform you of an incident that may affect the security of some of your personal information. We are providing this notice to you so that you may monitor your financial statements and take steps to protect your information.

What happened? On November 10, 2014, the personal automobile of an associate in the Company's Human Resources department was burglarized. Stolen from the automobile were various personal items and a Company laptop. The associate discovered the theft on November 11, 2014 and promptly reported the theft to local law enforcement and to the Company.

The Company immediately initiated an investigation to determine what sensitive information may have been contained on the laptop at the time of theft. The Company confirmed that the laptop was password protected at the time of the theft. Although our investigation is ongoing, we have determined that the laptop contained certain personal information of current and former employees including your name, address, [date of birth, bank account information, Social Security number, employee identification number, phone number] and possibly your email address.

What We Are Doing. The Company takes the security of employee personal information very seriously. We are not aware of actual or attempted misuse of your personal information. Nevertheless, we are providing you with helpful information on protection against identity theft and fraud, as well as access to one free year of credit monitoring and identity restoration services. We are also taking steps to minimize the risk of similar future data incidents. These steps include enhancing our policies and procedures relating to the security and confidentiality of Company records containing personal information.

What You Can Do. Enclosed is helpful information on how to protect against identity theft and fraud. You can also enroll to receive the free year of credit monitoring and identity restoration services we are offering to you. Please see the enclosed Notice of Privacy Safeguards for enrollment instructions.

The Company apologizes for any inconvenience or concern that this may cause. We remain committed to the security of personal information at the Company. We have established a confidential privacy line to assist you with questions regarding the incident, this letter and steps you may take to protect your information. This confidential privacy line can be reached at (877) 237-4971, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. EST. The reference number for this incident is #5316120814.

Sincerely,

Rebecca E. Steele
Chief Human Resources Officer

As described in our enclosed Notice of Privacy Safeguards, you have privacy rights under a state law that protects personal information. You may find out more about your privacy rights, safeguarding your identity, and enrolling in the complementary membership to Experian's® ProtectMyID® Alert by reading the enclosed Notice.

THE COMPANY'S NOTICE OF PRIVACY SAFEGUARDS

The Company takes this matter, and the security of personal information entrusted to it, very seriously. In order to help further safeguard against any potential misuse of your personal information, we are offering you access to a complimentary one-year membership of Experian's® ProtectMyID® Alert. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with superior identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft.

Activate ProtectMyID Now in Three Easy Steps

*Identity theft insurance is underwritten by insurance company subsidiaries or affiliates of AIG Insurance. The description herein is a summary and intended for informational purposes only and does not include all terms, conditions and exclusions of the policies described. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

At no charge, you can also have these credit bureaus place a "fraud alert" on your file that alerts creditors to take additional steps to verify your identity prior to granting credit in your name. Note, however, that because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, it may also delay your ability to obtain credit while the agency verifies your identity. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your file. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, or should you have any questions regarding your credit report, please contact any one of the agencies listed below.
