

Kelly A. Ayotte, Attorney General
New Hampshire Department of Justice
33 Capitol Street
Concord, NH 03301

May 13, 2008

Dear Attorney General Ayotte:

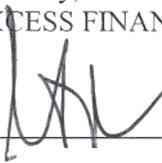

The purpose of this letter is to inform the New Hampshire Department of Justice that a security breach occurred in connection with a crime involving an employee's stolen computer. Although information contained within the stolen computer is unlikely to have resulted in unauthorized access due to the password protection and other security measures, we are notifying your office because information contained therein may have included data with some of your residents' personal information (such as name, address, or social security number). This crime occurred on or about October 23, 2007, and we filed a police report with state law enforcement officials. Following the discovery of this crime, an extensive forensic investigation was required to determine the information contained within the stolen property. There has been no indication that any misuse of this information has occurred in connection with the breach described above.

Notification to the 142 affected New Hampshire residents was mailed in the form of a letter on or about May 13, 2008, which is attached hereto for your reference. The letter informs customers of the circumstances surrounding the breach and of the option of enrolling in a credit monitoring service, one year of which shall be paid for by Axxcess Financial.

Axxcess Financial fully intends to cooperate with law enforcement in this ongoing criminal investigation and to assist customers with concerns relating to this unfortunate event.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact me at (513) 229-6777.

Sincerely,
AXCESS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.

Stephen Schaller
General Counsel

Enclosure

2008

Important Notice

Dear

We are an administrative financial services company that provides services to a number of companies. We are writing to advise you of a petty crime involving an employee's stolen belongings on October 23, 2007, which happened to include a secured computer that may have contained data with some of your personal information (such as name, address, or social security number).

It is highly unlikely any information has been breached because of password protection security measures. There are no reported incidences of any issues. While we are still awaiting the outcome of the police investigation, we are being proactive out of abundance of caution. Because there is a possibility that your personal information could have been subject to unauthorized disclosure, we have arranged to provide you – at our expense – 12 months of a credit monitoring service.

To activate this service, you must visit the website of the credit monitoring service listed below and enter the activation code provided.

Activation Code:

Your use of this credit monitoring service is entirely optional, and you may decline to use the service. We will pay for this credit monitoring service for 12 months, and any use of the service beyond this 12-month period will be at your expense. For any questions, please call 1-888-347-3595.

Sincerely,

Access Financial Services Inc.