Re: Disclosure of Personally Identifiable Information

Dear Attorney General Foster:

We are writing to inform you of the disclosure of personally identifiable information of New Hampshire residents. Rite Aid receives online paystubs, W-2s, and self-service applications from Equifax. In early March, Rite Aid learned from Equifax of suspicious activity involving a small number of accounts belonging to Rite Aid employees, and none of those accounts belonged to New Hampshire residents. Equifax further informed us that it had launched an investigation and was working with law enforcement on the matter.

On April 30, we learned from Equifax that an individual had potentially misused his or her access privileges to reset the accounts of two New Hampshire residents and access personal information associated with those accounts. The account resets occurred between January and February 2015. Equifax has informed us that the individual is no longer associated with Equifax. The personally identifiable information may have included name, home address, telephone number, social security number, and payroll information.

Equifax is continuing to investigate this incident, but other than described above, Equifax has informed us that it found no other indication that the accounts have been inappropriately accessed. Equifax has also taken steps to prevent any further inappropriate access. These steps include performing an account reset that requires the affected individuals to contact Equifax and reestablish their account access, and performing daily targeted network monitoring for suspicious activity.

On our behalf, Equifax mailed the attached notification to all of the affected New Hampshire residents this week. Equifax will be offering all affected individuals a free subscription to Equifax ID Patrol identity theft protection product. This product will provide individuals with comprehensive credit file monitoring and automated alerts of any key changes to their credit reports, $1 million Identity Fraud Expense Coverage and access to their credit report.

Sincerely,

Denise Hondorf

[NAME, ADDRESS]

Dear [NAME],

Our top priority is protecting our employees' information. We currently have a partnership with Equifax to provide our associates with online paystubs, W-2s, and self service applications.

On April 30, 2015, Equifax informed us that its Security team determined that an individual had potentially misused their access privileges to reset your account and access personal information associated with that account. The account reset occurred on [DATE]. The individual is no longer associated with Equifax. The personal information may have included your name, home address, telephone number, social security number, and payroll information.

Other than described above, Equifax has informed us that it has no indication that your account has been inappropriately accessed. Equifax has also taken steps to prevent any inappropriate access. These steps include performing an account reset that requires you to contact Equifax and reestablish your account access, and performing daily targeted network monitoring for suspicious activity. In an abundance of caution, we are informing you of this incident and have set forth below measures you may take to protect your personal information.

What We Will Do to Help Protect Your Personal Information

What Else You Can Do To Protect Your Personal Information

We ask that you remain vigilant with respect to your personal information and we encourage you to consider the following steps:

- Closely monitor your financial accounts and, if you see any unauthorized activity, promptly contact your financial institution.
- Monitor your credit report at all three of the national consumer credit reporting agencies. You can order a free copy of your credit report by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling 877-322-8228, or completing the Annual Credit Report Form on the Federal Trade Commission website at <http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0093-annual-report-request-form.pdf>. The contact information for all three national credit reporting agencies is listed below.

| Equifax | Experian | TransUnion |
| Phone: 800-685-1111 P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374 www.equifax.com | Phone: 888-397-3742 P.O. Box 9532 Allen, TX 75013 www.experian.com | Phone: 800-916-8800 P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19022 www.transunion.com |

- Consider placing a fraud alert message on your Equifax credit file. By placing this alert on your Equifax credit file, any company that requests your credit file will receive a message warning them that you may have been a victim of fraud. Companies that receive this alert may request that you provide proof of your identity. This step will help to protect you from accounts being opened or used by anyone other than yourself. If you would like to place a fraud alert message on your Equifax credit file, call 1-877-478-7625. Once you contact Equifax to place a fraud alert, Equifax will notify Experian and TransUnion on your behalf to request that they place a fraud alert on your file as well.
- If you detect any incident of fraud or identity theft, promptly report the incident to your local law enforcement authority and the Federal Trade Commission (www.consumer.ftc.gov; 877-438-4338; 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580). You can also obtain information from these sources about additional methods to prevent identity theft, and you can obtain information from the Federal Trade Commission and the consumer reporting agencies for more information regarding fraud alerts and security freezes.

We take the protection of your information very seriously and apologize for any inconvenience. If you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact Equifax at 1-877-497-7054.

Sincerely,

Denise Hondorf
