Re: Security Breach Notification

Dear Attorney General Delaney:

We write to inform you of a recent data incident that may have affected approximately 59 New Hampshire residents. RR Donnelley is providing this notice on behalf of itself, as well as its affected customer, United Healthcare (“UHC”).

On December 3, 2012, RR Donnelley discovered that an unencrypted desktop computer had been stolen from its Windsor, CT facility. Promptly upon reaching this conclusion, it filed a report with the Windsor Police Department, and because RR Donnelley was entrusted with UHC member data as part of a Business Associate relationship, UHC was also notified. The investigation into this incident is still ongoing, and the analysis of the situation is not yet finalized. Current information, however, indicates that the names, addresses, and Social Security numbers of approximately 59 New Hampshire residents were on the hard drive of the computer. The affected individuals will be notified promptly.

We take such matters as this very seriously. There is no evidence to suggest that any affected individuals’ information has been misused in any way. However, as a precaution to help affected individuals monitor the security of their personal information and detect possible misuse of such information, we are providing a one year membership in a LifeLock identity theft protection program at no cost to the affected individuals. We will also establish a dedicated toll-free number for members of the affected population to call if they have any questions. Additionally, the notification letter sent to affected individuals recommends steps they can take to protect their identity, including informing them that they should report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or the Attorney General. It also explains to them how to place a fraud alert and/or security freeze on their credit file and provides them with the contact information for the national credit reporting agencies and the Federal Trade Commission.

RR Donnelley is working to put additional protections in place to prevent such incidents from occurring in the future, including reinforcing existing policies and practices and evaluating additional safeguards.

If you have any questions about this incident, please do not hesitate to contact me at (312) 326-8129.

Sincerely,

Dear [Recipient Name]:

We take your privacy and the confidentiality of the information entrusted to us very seriously. Despite our best attempts, there was a recent incident in which your personal information, in connection with your participation in the Boy Scouts of America 2003 health benefit plan, may have been compromised. We wanted to make you aware, as well as explain some options available to you to protect you.

According to RR Donnelley, a print and mailing vendor that UnitedHealthcare uses, sometime between the second half of September and the end of November, 2012, an unencrypted desktop computer was stolen from one of its facilities. On December 3, 2012, upon discovering that the computer was stolen, the vendor promptly filed a report with law enforcement, and because it was entrusted with UnitedHealthcare member data as part of a Business Associate relationship, UnitedHealthcare was also notified.

According to our vendor, the 2003 information contained on the computer was limited to your name, address and Social Security number. We have no indication that this information has been accessed, misused or further disclosed. The vendor is continuing to work with law enforcement in an attempt to locate the stolen computer.

We deeply regret this incident and any inconvenience or concern that it may cause you. As a precaution, we are offering you one year of free LifeLock® identity theft protection services, which include proactive identity theft protection, identity theft alerts, address change verification, annual copies of your credit report from all three national credit bureaus, and comprehensive recovery services if you become a victim of identity theft during your LifeLock membership. We have enclosed instructions for your convenience in registering for this service, along with a Reference Guide that provides details about additional steps you may wish to take to monitor and protect your credit.

As a further precaution, we recommend that you monitor your tax returns, health benefit statements, credit card and other financial statements. If you notice any unusual activity, please notify the related institution immediately.

We take this incident very seriously and are committed to protecting the privacy and security of our member's personal information. Our vendor is putting additional protections in place to prevent such incidents from occurring in the future including reinforcing existing policies and practices and evaluating additional safeguards.

We have established a toll-free hotline that you can call if you have any questions. Representatives are available between the hours of 8:00am to 5:00pm Eastern Standard Time at 1-800-632-3203. Again, please accept our deepest apologies.

Order Your Free Credit Report

You are entitled to receive your credit report from each of the three national credit reporting agencies once per year, free of charge. You may obtain your free annual credit report from each of the national credit reporting agencies by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free at 877-322-8228, or by mailing your request to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. Do not contact the three credit bureaus individually. They provide free annual credit reports only through the website or toll-free number.

When you receive your credit report(s), review them carefully. Look for any inaccurate information and contact the appropriate credit reporting agency to notify of any incorrect information, including accounts you did not open; requests for your credit report from anyone that you did not apply for credit with; or inaccuracies regarding your personal identifying information, such as your home address and Social Security number. If you find anything that you do not understand or that is incorrect, contact the appropriate credit reporting agency using the contact information on the credit report as soon as possible so the information can be investigated, and if found to be in error, corrected.

Contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission

If you detect any unauthorized transactions in your financial accounts, promptly notify your credit card company or financial institution. If you detect any incident of identity theft or fraud, promptly report the incident to your local law enforcement authorities, your state Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission. If you believe your identity has been stolen, the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") recommends that you take these additional steps:

- Close the accounts that you have confirmed or believe have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
- File a complaint with the FTC using the ID Theft Complaint Form (available at www.ftc.gov/idtheft). Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible by law enforcement agencies for their investigations. Use the FTC's ID Theft Affidavit (available at www.ftc.gov/idtheft) when filing a report with law enforcement or to address disputes with credit reporting agencies and creditors about identity theft related problems such as new unauthorized accounts.
- File a local police report. Obtain a copy of the police report and submit it to your creditors and any others that may require proof of the identity theft crime.

You can learn more about how to protect yourself from becoming a victim of identity theft by contacting the FTC:

Place a Fraud Alert on Your Credit File

To protect yourself from possible identity theft, consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file. A fraud alert helps protect you against the possibility of an identity thief opening new credit accounts in your name. When a merchant checks the credit history of someone applying for credit, the merchant gets a notice that the applicant may be a victim of identity theft. The alert notifies the merchant to take steps to verify the identity of the applicant. You can report potential identity theft to all three of the major credit bureaus by calling any one of the toll-free fraud numbers below. You will reach an automated telephone system that allows you to flag your file with a fraud alert at all three bureaus.

Equifax	Equifax Information Services LLC P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348-5069	800-525-6285	www.equifax.com
Experian	P.O. Box 9554 Allen, Texas 75013	888-397-3742	www.experian.com
TransUnion	Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 6790 Fullerton, California 92834-6790	800-680-7289	www.transunion.com

Place a Security Freeze on Your Credit File

You may wish to place a “security freeze” on your credit file. A security freeze generally will prevent creditors from accessing your credit file at the three nationwide credit bureaus without your consent. You can request a security freeze by contacting the credit bureaus at:

Equifax	Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, Georgia 30348	www.equifax.com
Experian	Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, Texas 75013	www.experian.com
TransUnion	Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 6790 Fullerton, California 92834-6790	www.transunion.com

The credit bureaus may charge a reasonable fee to place a freeze on your account, and may require that you provide proper identification prior to honoring your request.

You are entitled to receive your credit report from each of the three national credit reporting agencies once per year, free of charge. You may obtain your free annual credit report from each of the national credit reporting agencies by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free at 877-322-8228, or by mailing your request to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. Do not contact the three credit bureaus individually. They provide free annual credit reports only through the website or toll-free number.

When you receive your credit report(s), review them carefully. Look for any inaccurate information and contact the appropriate credit reporting agency to notify of any incorrect information, including accounts you did not open; requests for your credit report from anyone that you did not apply for credit with; or inaccuracies regarding your personal identifying information, such as your home address and Social Security number. If you find anything that you do not understand or that is incorrect, contact the appropriate credit reporting agency using the contact information on the credit report as soon as possible so the information can be investigated, and if found to be in error, corrected.

Contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission

If you detect any unauthorized transactions in your financial accounts, promptly notify your credit card company or financial institution. If you detect any incident of identity theft or fraud, promptly report the incident to your local law enforcement authorities, your state Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission. If you believe your identity has been stolen, the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") recommends that you take these additional steps:

- Close the accounts that you have confirmed or believe have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
- File a complaint with the FTC using the ID Theft Complaint Form (available at www.ftc.gov/idtheft). Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible by law enforcement agencies for their investigations. Use the FTC's ID Theft Affidavit (available at www.ftc.gov/idtheft) when filing a report with law enforcement or to address disputes with credit reporting agencies and creditors about identity theft related problems such as new unauthorized accounts.
- File a local police report. Obtain a copy of the police report and submit it to your creditors and any others that may require proof of the identity theft crime.

Place a Fraud Alert on Your Credit File

To protect yourself from possible identity theft, consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file. A fraud alert helps protect you against the possibility of an identity thief opening new credit accounts in your name. When a merchant checks the credit history of someone applying for credit, the merchant gets a notice that the applicant may be a victim of identity theft. The alert notifies the merchant to take steps to verify the identity of the applicant. You can report potential identity theft to all three of the major credit bureaus by calling any one of the toll-free fraud numbers below. You will reach an automated telephone system that allows you to flag your file with a fraud alert at all three bureaus.

Equifax	Equifax Information Services LLC P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348-5069	800-525-6285	www.equifax.com
Experian	P.O. Box 9554 Allen, Texas 75013	888-397-3742	www.experian.com
TransUnion	Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 6790 Fullerton, California 92834-6790	800-680-7289	www.transunion.com

Place a Security Freeze on Your Credit File

You may wish to place a “security freeze” on your credit file. A security freeze generally will prevent creditors from accessing your credit file at the three nationwide credit bureaus without your consent. You can request a security freeze by contacting the credit bureaus at:

Equifax	Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, Georgia 30348	www.equifax.com
Experian	Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, Texas 75013	www.experian.com
TransUnion	Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 6790 Fullerton, California 92834-6790	www.transunion.com

The credit bureaus may charge a reasonable fee to place a freeze on your account, and may require that you provide proper identification prior to honoring your request.
