

TRAFFIC SAFETY RESOURCE PROSECUTOR
CRIMINAL JUSTICE BUREAU
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The New Hampshire Department of Justice seeks an experienced and motivated attorney with at least two years of prosecutorial experience to join the Criminal Justice Bureau as the Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor (TSRP). The TSRP is responsible for providing state-specific training and technical assistance to prosecutors and law enforcement officers across New Hampshire on traffic safety-related investigations, prosecutions, and developments in the law -- with specific emphasis on impaired driving offenses. The TSRP drafts pleadings, memos, and appellate briefs; assists in trial preparation; serves as co-counsel on DUI cases in circuit court; and collects and analyzes all DUI reduction letters submitted by authorities state-wide.

The ideal candidate will have significant litigation experience (focused on impaired driving offenses), excellent oral and written communication skills, and the ability to work constructively with prosecutors and law enforcement officers in the field. The salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. A superior benefit package, including health, dental, and life insurance, is available.

Please send a cover letter, CV, and writing sample to: New Hampshire Department of Justice, 1 Granite Place South, Concord, NH 03301, c/o Sean Gill, Chief of Staff or email: employment@doj.nh.gov.
